PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

CITY SCAN

City Scan increases citizen involvement in government by improving communication between citizens and local officials about community priorities. Considered to be a national model for citizen-based assessment of the performance of city government, City Scan empowers, educates and energizes using cutting-edge technology! For more information, contact Michael Meotti, President, at mike.meotti@cpec.org (ext. 14), or visit www.city-scan.com.

CIVICRADAR

CIVICRADAR offers a unique opportunity for high-level interaction between citizens and local government. CIVICRADAR goes beyond basic email communication and provides both the resident and the participating municipality with the latest in web technology to communicate and measure citizen satisfaction with local services. To learn more about how CIVICRADAR can work in your community, contact Jonathan Scott at jscott@cpec.org (ext. 30), or visit www.civicradar.com.

CPEC provides other services, including:

- ♦ Strategic planning ♦ Data collection/analysis ♦ Web hosting
- ♦ Mapping and GIS solutions ♦ Community planning
- ♦ Customized research and reporting

ABOUT CPEC
