

Investigating the World One Source at a Time Focus Groups

Lincoln Memorial University Hamilton School of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences
Lincoln Memorial University Carter and Moyers School of Education
Clinch-Powell Educational Cooperative.

Find out about our program and give us your input on what you want to see!

The program focuses on the new Tennessee Social Studies standards for next year. We want to know what content and themes you all would like us to use to discuss the new standards.

If you are interested in applying for this program, please attend one of the Focus Groups listed in the dates on the right to hear more about the program and tell us what topics and themes you would like to see in the online portal and Summer Institute.

Light refreshments will be served.

Participants will receive a small stipend for participating in one Focus Group.

Attendance is not required for participation in the program.

Please Note: Involvement in a Focus Group does not automatically mean acceptance into the program.
